GREAT QUESTION at Chicago—How to dodge the silver question.

* * *

IF PRINCE GEORGE needed votes he would be still more barren of Killarney.

* * *

MR. WATTERSON so loves to agitate himself that he imagines emergencies in order to lament them.

* * *

A MAN in whom the sense of propriety is large speaks with cautious enthusiasm of the Blankrosch baby.

* * *

DR. PARKHURST will climb the Alps, and peradventure pull a few of them up and bring them home.

* * *

PROTECTION IS RIGHT in England, as here; but it will be curious if it doesn't Salisbury the Tory party.

* * *

MR. DUDLEY says he was never called "Blocks-of-five Dudley." Oh, yes, he was; but he didn't show up.

* * *

A RESOLUTION denouncing Lord Salisbury as a traitor must be one of the planks of the Chicago platform.

* * *

BEST SPEECH at Chicago—"Gentlemen may cry 'Peace, peace,' but there is nothing of that kind in this establishment."

* * *

YOUNG VANDERBILT was superior to his fortune, and the compliment is so great that it can be paid to few millionaires.

* * *

THE MAN who predicts that David B. Hill will retire to private life knows so little of the gentleman that we feel sure he never heard of him.

* * *

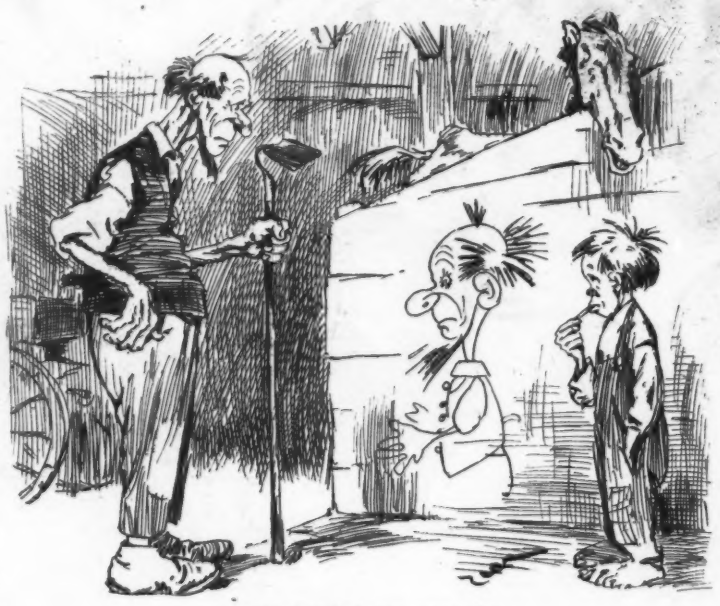
KING CHRISTIAN of Denmark, having furnished the world with two queens and a king, has a right to a golden wedding, the two bowers and the joker.

* * *

WHEN MR. BLAINE dies—and may that be a hundred years hence—his first remark to Peter will have to be, "I assure you, sir, my visit has no political significance."

* * *

MR. SHINGLE of Kentucky had so much to say in the Omaha conference that one of the members got mad and declared he didn't know enough to go in when it rained.



A MISDIRECTED GENIUS.

MR. ROGGERS—"Who's that, you young rascal?"
SILAS (who has been doing some charcoal work)—"B-ben B-butler, pop."
MR. ROGGERS—"By Moses! it's great, boy. I'll have to send you down t' York an' git you on a paper."

WE LOOK upon Bunco-steerer O'Brien as the king of skippers and the prince of diplomatists. Had that man been born honest he might have hooked the throne of England.

* * *

"BRING ME my high horse!" exclaimed the German emperor loftily, picking himself out of the ditch into which four ordinary beasts had flung him; "I never could get along with those plebeian animals."

THE SCARLET FEMALE.

MR. BYRNES believes in sequestrating the social evil and having it properly regulated. No greater reform is possible; and yet Anna Dickinson, who proposed the same choice of evils twenty years ago, was abused for it like a pickpocket. The question seems to be, whether the evil shall regulate the public or the public shall regulate the evil.

A BAD EXAMPLE.

THE PARIS WOMAN who killed her husband's sweetheart has gone too far. She has usurped a privilege belonging solely to the other sex. Then she was utterly brutal in the commission of her crime, in verification of the old truth and experience that no woman knows when to stop. We can almost say of her that she is thirty years ahead of her age.

THE COMPROMISE SALOON.

THE PROPOSITION of Dr. Rainsford to have church saloons for the dispensation of soft drinks like beer and light wines doesn't go far enough. We must have regard for the associations belonging to such indulgences. There must be art galleries like that of Mr. Stokes; and for the capture of the lower classes of drinkers there must be cards, dirt, sawdust, pool for drinks, and the utmost license of profanity.

THE REWARD OF COWARDICE.

BOIES CANNOT be nominated, thinks the Troy Press, "because he was elected governor on a free-silver platform, which he indorsed." And Cleveland, it is urged, cannot be nominated because of his letter favoring fair money and opposing free silver. What then? Well, somebody must be nominated on a no-silver platform, or in other words some man who has no silver views whatever, or, if he has them, is afraid to publish them.

WOMAN'S RIGHT TO LIVE.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE at Westminster, Maryland, decided, after a discussion lasting two days, to admit women delegates, and the decision was largely the result of a speech by the Rev. Mrs. St. John. Anything may be hoped when the church becomes as liberal in this regard as are the professions and the world of work and business. The right of a woman to educate herself has been partially conceded by the colleges, and to tell the truth, we have long held the opinion that women have been admitted to positions among the angels ever since they began to die.

LIFE AROUND THE HOLY MOSES MINE.

MR. JACK PUGH died suddenly a few days ago, at Creede, Colorado, from a bullet fired into him by a deputy-marshal. "He was a man," says the Creede Chronicle, "who was primarily a gentleman, and after that a man who was afraid of nothing on earth." It is a fair inference, from the fact that he had shot two men, that his primary education had been somewhat neglected. The Chronicle, however, after shedding a few tears over Mr. Pugh, becomes reflective and boastful. "About the time Cripple Creek thinks it has the edge," it says in an editorial paragraph, "Creede comes to the front with a killing. Pass the buck and ante up." Again it says, gently chiding the editor of the Salida Press for some irreverence regarding Creede, "It is none of his business if the whole camp goes on a tear and winds up in hades." The gentleness and philosophy of Creede are an improvement on the ways of the forty-niners. They used to give hades only four letters and one syllable.

LOVE AND CHARITY.

"OH! WHAT is love?" the maiden cried
As, with her lover by her side,
They wandered o'er the meadows wide.

"'Tis heaven on earth," replied the swain;
"'Tis bliss by day and night again—
And yet—'tis oft a dreadful pain."

The answer did not please the maid.
They met a hermit in the glade,
Beneath a giant oak-tree's shade.

She questioned him. The sage looked down
And slowly shook his silvery crown,
And, half in laughter, half in frown:

"Love is a paradox, my child.
'Tis selfish, generous, timid, wild;
By suffering chastened; sin defiled.

"It has made martyrs—murderers too;
It has brought peace—and often rue;
It heals some hearts—breaks not a few.

"Charity asketh naught of this;
Envieth not the raptured kiss
Nor pangs and joys of lovers' bliss.

"It giveth all things; asketh none;
Is by no slight affection won,
Content if but its work be done.

"Love is confined to single twain;
Charity covers earth's broad plain;
Love makes, but charity soothes, our pain.

"Love answers but a single call,
But charity—to great and small—
Taketh nothing—giveth all.

"So, little maid, 'twere well to see
If happy in your love you'd be,
Unite both love and charity."

CHURCHILL JOHNSTONE.

A FORE-AN'-AFTER.

MISS VAN RENSLER—"How in d' wuld did yo' lose yo' toes, Mistah Auchincloss?"
MR. AUCHINCLOSS—"S'pose yo' fink I got ketched in a mush-rat trap."
MISS VAN RENSLER—"Did yo'?"
MR. AUCHINCLOSS (proudly)—"Nope; dem's heels."

LIE-LOCKS.

YOU HAD BETTER keep your eye on William C. Whitney. He may become interesting.

* * *

IT MAY BE remarked, speaking of Pugilist Jackson, that the colored troops fight nobly.

* * *

IN FLORIDA recently, according to a dispatch, a suspected man confessed after torture "with twisters and hot coals." Mr. Ponce de Leon must have discovered likewise the pit of perpetual ignorance and barbarism.

A SPRING EXCHANGE.

MR. MINKLE—"Hold on there! I didn't order any coal."
TRUCKMAN—"No, sir; your neighbor, Mr. Fawkes, sent it over with his compliments. He's coming himself later in th' day to try to borrow a small hunk of ice."

THE VOTERS of this state will split the difference between Cleveland and Hill and declare for the Republican candidate.

* * *

HOWEVER the Chicago convention decides as to the kodaks and the dandelions of this state, it will be sorry it didn't decide the other way.

* * *

MRS. LANGTRY has bought twenty hats so far this season. If she might have omitted two how nice it would have been for her to buy a couple of virtues.

* * *

BASE-BALL on Sunday is advocated by the mayor of Toledo. The craze can go no further, unless indeed somebody petitions that the churches be closed and the game have the precedence of everything nine days of the week.

A RED MISTAKE.

BONY-PART—"Say, Weary, that's a blamed shame! Here I thought we had stolen two cans o' tomatoes, an' it's nothin' but red paint."

WHENCE?

WE HAVE a thought, and think we think that thought,
And yet that thought we never thought to think.
Whence came that thought? 'Twas not the mind that wrought;
'Twas born alone, no other thought to link.

LITTLE DIFFERENCE.

Mr. de Social—"I won't be at the club to-night. I promised to go with my wife to Mrs. de Style's conversationale."

Friend—"What's a conversationale?"

Mr. de Social—"It's a musicale without the music."

ON THE EVE OF THE FUNERAL.

Briggs—"I see that there is crape on the Binger door."

Griggs—"Yes. Old man Binger bought himself a safety razor last week."

HER GENTLE HINT.

"ARE you interested in base-ball?" asked Miss Skitts of Mr. Dolley, at eleven p. m.

"Yes, I am," Dolley replied. "But why do you ask, Miss Skitts?"

"I was merely wondering if it wasn't about time for you to make a home run."

A HORRID PRESCRIPTION.

Doctor—"You should wear a chest-protector, Mrs. Fashun."

Mrs. Fashun—"I may take it off when I wear a ball or opera dress, mayn't I?"

Doctor—"No, madam. In fact that is really the only time when you need it."

COSTLY ENTERTAINMENT.

GILMANN (opening his hundred-dollar camera)—"Who's been AT THIS BOX?!!"

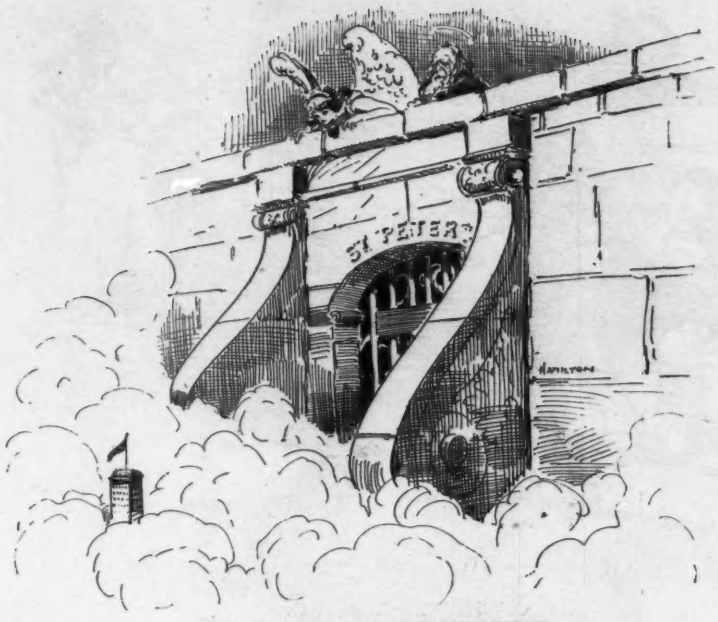
THE NEW GIRL—"Oi t'ought th' baby 'd be aisier wid somet'ing t' play wid, sor, so Oi gev him th' accordion Oi found inside it, but divil th' note it'll make."

ADVERTISING A LOCALITY.

MISS ELLINGHAM—"Who is that eccentric-looking man talking to papa?"

YOUNG WOLF—"His name is Daniels. He's from Buffalo, and he wants everybody to know it."



AN EVERY-DAY OCCURRENCE.

SPIRIT—"Gracious! what is that thing growing up outside of the gate?"

ST. PETER—"Don't be alarmed, my friend. That is only the top of a Chicago building."

UNCOMPLIMENTARY.

INDUSTRIOUS WILLETS—"Why don't you git somethin' t' do too, Hannibal?"

HANNIBAL—"Can't find nothin'."

WILLETS—"Why don't yer go over t' ole man Penton's stock-farm an' git a job scarin' colts?"

HANNIBAL—"I don't know as I ketch on."

WILLETS—"Why, 's soon 's they got used ter you they wouldn't never be scared at nothin' agin."

THE PROPER PLACE FOR IT.

AFTER a three-weeks' strike in his factory Mr. Browne remarked to Mrs. Browne in a dejected manner that for his part he had never known a "strike" to be productive of any good at any time or in any place.

Mrs. Browne replied that she thought it might be the very thing in a clock-factory or a match-factory.

A TEST.

MY FRIEND, a subtle wit, repeats to me
Each joke he writes, and if my feeble brain
Can grasp the point, at which I laugh, then he Rejects the humor as a thing too plain.

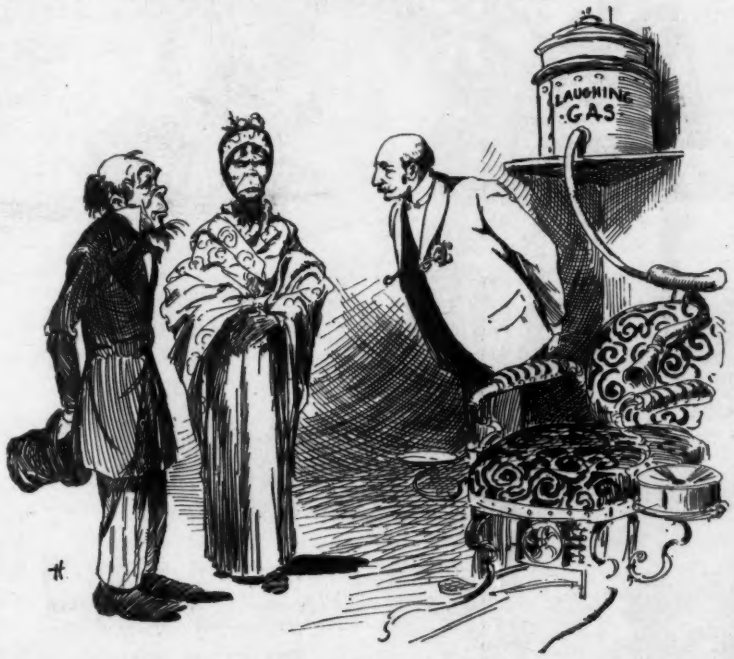
HER ESSAY.

Friend—"There was a good deal of fine thought contained in your graduation essay, Emily."

Graduate—"I'm glad you liked it. I was terribly annoyed yesterday. You see, I didn't get it until late last night from the dressmaker's."



PAT'S REMEDY.

"Oi want yez t' give Biddy a blow or two av that laughin'-gas. She hasn't laughed since th' nanny-goat ate pizen, be gob!"

WISE.

"I NEVER play in a theatre heated by steam," said Marlowe.

"Afraid of fire?"

"No; but audiences are like sheep. They'll follow a lead, and the hissing of a steam-radiator might prove disastrous."

AGGRAVATING.

I HATE a man who always has
Important things to say—
Who can't recall them all just now,
But will some other day.

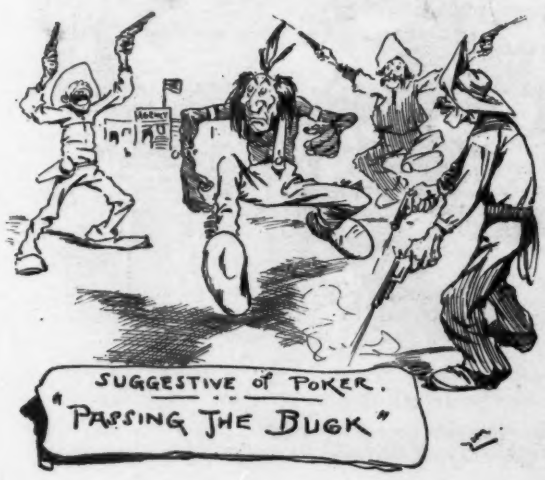
IN TRAINING.

She—"You are looking remarkably well and strong."

He—"Yes. I have been taking regular gymnastic exercise for two months now."

She—"Have you any special reason for doing so?"

He—"Oh, yes. I am getting ready for my summer vacation."



MODERN PRACTICE.

"IS YOUR physician of the new or old school?'

"The newest, I believe."

"What is his distinguishing peculiarity?"

"Small doses and big fees."

INSINCERE.

HOW inconsistent man is; for,
That it's true the fact is plain,
Although he hates his creditor
He'll ask him to call again.

IT IS FOUND that the excitement of a ball game frequently cures insanity; but the last state of the patient is worse than the first.

THAT ENGLISH SUIT.

UNCLE JOSH—"Gosh! dew yew ever expect tew grow enough to fill out them togs?"

ENLIGHTENED.

POLICEMAN—"Here now, move on or Oi'll pull yez in!"

INEBRIATED — "Lookst here, ole mansh, 'm waiten for that car."

POLICEMAN—"Thot car! Thot's a red loight in a drug-shtore."

OUT OF HIS RECKONING.

ABSENT-MINDED COUNSELOR—"Gentlemen of the jury, if you convict this man who, I ask you, is to care for the widow and orphans left lonely and"——

THE PRISONER—"Slow up, pard. It was der old woman what got shot."

A LOST ILLUSTRATION.

"HE'S an awful miser. I never heard of him giving anything away in his life."

"Didn't he give his daughter away when she was married?"

"You're awfully funny, aren't you? His daughter eloped."

AT THE WRITERS' CLUB.

"ARE you acquainted with Mr. Yardwide Stripling, Mr. Forceit?"

"I—aw—I think Mr. Stripling has met me," replied Mr. Forceit.

1—HE HAD TO SAY IT.

MRS. WHETMORE (to caller)—"Wait a moment, won't you? Mr. Whetmore has just stepped downstairs."

LOST TO THE WORLD.

"NOW prisoner," said the judge, "how did you manage to elude so successfully the vigilance of the detectives?"

"That was very easy, your honor," replied the prisoner. "I lived in the front parlor of a New England farm-house."

A CHARMING WAY.

"IS FLEECY an entertaining man in company?"

"He is one of the most charming listeners you ever saw."

A SLIP INVOLUNTARY.

"FLORENCE," said her mother severely, "what is this I hear? Your brother tells me that you winked at the principal in school to-day!"

"O, mamma," replied the maiden, "don't let that trouble you. I didn't mean to; indeed I didn't. I only happened to be looking at the professor and my eye slipped."

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN.

CLARA—"I suppose you have heard that Charlie Bigrolle and I don't speak, haven't you?"

MAUDE—"Why, no. What was the trouble?"

CLARA—"It was all my dressmaker's fault. She forgot to take the pins out of my waistband."

HER IDEA OF SINGLENESS.

A LITTLE girl was singing "I wish I was single, the bells they would jingle; I wish I was single again."

Her papa asked her what she meant by single, and she replied,

"Oh, not to be twins."

ANOTHER WAY OF PUTTING IT.

Miss Emerson (of Boston)—"Are you quite satisfied that he loves you?"

Miss Bleecker (of New York)—"Dead sure."

Miss Emerson—"But what makes you so fatally confident?"

2—HE HAD TO SAY IT.

MR. WHETMORE (who has tripped, turned over four times and struck every stair twice with the back of his head)—"Madam, you lie!"

THE REASON HE LEFT HOME.

WAITER—"Would you like some cold tongue, sir?"

MR. HENPECK—"No, no! for heaven's sake, no! That is why I'm living at a restaurant. My wife's mother is visiting us."

VIOLATED THE PROPRIETIES.

"EUGENE was horribly dressed last night."

"I thought he looked well."

"Pshaw! A man named Black ought never to wear a yellow necktie."

ALL THAT WAS LEFT.

HE SAT on a can of dynamite,
Oh, horrible disaster!
They could not find of him one mite,
But they buried the porous-plaster.

SAVED SOMETHING.

Boggs—"When Hawkins failed he made everything over to his wife, didn't he?"

Creditor—"All but his honor. He preserved that for us."

HAD SEEN ENOUGH.

HIS NEPHEW—"Have you seen the Chinese quarter since you have been here, uncle?"

UNCLE ROLLINS—"No, I ain't, an' I don't wanter. A feller passed an English one on me yisterday, an' I can't git rid of it fer more 'n twenty cents."

THE LITTLE ONE'S VIEW.

"MAMMA," said little May, "I'm afraid I'm naughty, because I've got an awful stomach-ache."

"It was the pie you ate, I think, May."

"Oh, no, mamma. The pie was too good to behave like that. It must be me."

MUSIC ON THE HIGH "C."

PRINCE LEONETTI—"On'y place catcha ze crowd."

A SERIOUS THREAT.

"Yo' insult me dat way agin an' yo' wife 'll be pricin' crape ter-morrer. Heah me talkin'?"

THE SAME THING.

"BLANCHE VANASTER is suffering from the big-head," remarked Miss Bleecker.

"I think myself she has an abnormally expanded cranium," replied Miss Emerson of Boston.

SWITCHED OFF.

"SAY, boss, ain't mah face mah ticket?" said a tough-looking colored man to a city railroad conductor.

"Ya-as," said the conductor thoughtfully; "but it has not been punched often enough, and it looks to me like a lay-over ticket."

And he laid him over a seat and choked him a short time. The ride was not sponged after this round.

"GLORY," said Verdi, "is a fine thing for boys and hysterical women." We observe, however, that only those have contempt for it who have or have had it, and there is some consolation in that for those who can't get it.

AS THE DITCH APPROACHED COMPLETION.

CASEY—"Are youse on this wor-rk?"

RUFFINS—"I is."

CASEY—"Oi've a mind t' fill up pfwhat Oi'm afther diggin' as a pinance fer th' sin o' me bein' an th' sem job wid yez."

HARRISON
DEMOCRATIC STABLES

OUR OLD INVINCIBLE CHAMPION AGAIN IN THE FIELD.

Ride on, O Chieftain great and brave!
Above thee all our banners wave!
Thou knight of truth, foe of the knave;
None doubt thy power to do and save.

Lift high the standard of the free,
Emblem of all men's liberty,
Bearing the country's firm decree,
PROTECTION, RECIPROCITY!

A MISTAKE.

"That's a pretty nice-lookin' feller to be shinin' boots."

UNPARDONABLE.

WHEN you were rich
She knew not which
Your name—Apollo or Adonis;
Now wealth is fled,
Her love is dead,
And your poor heart in grief alone is.

Yet still you sigh,
And wonder why
Her love is not the same as ever.
No woman lives
That e'er forgives
The crime of poverty—no, never!

IT TAKES a sneak to be a good private detective, and the more successful he is the more cause he has to be ashamed of himself.

HER PROUD POSITION.

"YOU must be the oldest hen of the flock," said the new rooster as he surveyed his harem.

"Yes," replied Biddy; "I'm the nester of the barn-yard."

GUMMEY KNEW WHAT TO DO WITH IT.

Glanders (looking critically at a cigar which Gummey has just given him)—"Do you buy the Excellentissimo de Cubas too?"

Gummey—"No."

Glanders—"This looks like the same brand as the one I gave you yesterday."

Gummey—"It's the identical cigar."

LOOKING OUT FOR NUMBER ONE.

OFFICER—"Move on out 'r thot, now!"

FLUSHED MORBIDS (the tramp)—"Jest wait a minute. The Clawed Rabbits association is goin' t' give their pres'dent a testimonial, an' as I'm him I wanter give 'm some suggestions."

BUSKINS—"I read this morning of a man who didn't want the earth and yet got it."

HAMFATTER—"Who was he?"

BUSKINS—"A parachute performer—his parachute refused to open!"

THE BABY.

THERE'S nothing worries like a brat,
For all day long he loves to crawl;
And when it gets too dark for that,
You find the imp begins to bawl.

A WOMAN has invented an improved fastening for shirt-buttons. Indolence and a yearning to evade responsibility have brought about some of our most valuable inventions; and the crying need now, we suppose, is the garment on which to affix the fastening.

SLIGHTLY OFF IN HIS PREMISES.

BROKER (to his visiting father)—"That shows the absolute security of Wall street. There may be a million dollars in that chest, and yet it is intrusted to two boys."

BROKER'S CLERK—"Say, Johnny, if that old cat keeps on we won't have time to eat our lunch by and by."

Daughter—"Oh, papa, Miss Reech has a dog-cart that cost two hundred dollars!" Father—"But I presented you with a brougham that cost me five hundred." Daughter—"But her dog-cart came direct from London."—Rider and Driver.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for Children Teething; soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and diarrhœa. 25 cents a bottle.

Miss Queto—"Why did the Hessians carouse so late the night Washington captured them at Trenton?" Miss Ann Tick—"They probably didn't realize how quickly time fled. It is said in history, you know, that the Hessians were without a watch."—Jewelers' Weekly.

The Albany Times-Union cautions people not to leap from the carriage when the horse is running away. Quite right. The best way is to stick to your seat till the carriage tips over. Then get out.—Buffalo Express.

IRON STEAMBOAT COMPANY—THE FAVORITE AND THE BEST.

The best, the safest, the most enjoyable route to and from Coney Island is that of the Iron Steamboat Company, from Twenty-third street and Pier one. The boats have their summer dress on, and are provided, as heretofore, with every accommodation. Nothing is more delicious of a warm day than the trips to and from the island, whether one stops or not to luxuriate on the beach, at the hotel or in the swim. The boats run every hour from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and the route was never more popular than it is this year.

Grocers are better fighters than milkmen, for the former have lots of sand, while the latter take water.—Westfield Leader.

LOVELY FACES,
WHITE HANDS.

Nothing will WHITEN and CLEAR the skin so quickly as

Derma-Royale

The new discovery for dissolving and removing discolorations from the cuticle, and bleaching and brightening the complexion. In experimenting in the laundry with a new bleach for fine fabrics it was discovered that all spots, freckles, tan and other discolorations were quickly removed from the hands and arms without the slightest injury to the skin. The discovery was submitted to experienced Dermatologists and Physicians who prepared for us the formula of the marvelous Derma-Royale. THERE NEVER WAS ANYTHING LIKE IT. It is perfectly harmless and so simple a child can use it. Apply at night—the improvement apparent after a single application will surprise and delight you. It quickly dissolves and removes the worst forms of moth-patches, brown or liver spots, freckles, blackheads, blotches, sallowness, redness, tan and every discoloration of the cuticle. One bottle completely removes and cures the most aggravated case and thoroughly clears, whitens and beautifies the complexion. It has never failed—IT CANNOT FAIL. It is highly recommended by Physicians and its sure results warrant us in offering $500 REWARD.—To assure the public of its merits we _____ agree to forfeit Five Hundred Dollars CASH, for any case of moth-patches, brown spots, liver spots, blackheads, ugly or muddy skin, unnatural redness, freckles, tan or any other cutaneous discolorations, (excepting birthmarks, scars, and those of a scrofulous or kindred nature) that Derma-Royale will not quickly remove and cure. We also agree to forfeit Five Hundred Dollars to any person whose skin can be injured in the slightest possible manner, or to anyone whose complexion (no matter in how bad condition it may be), will not be cleared, whitened, improved and beautified by the use of Derma-Royale.

Put up in elegant style in large eight-ounce bottles.

ARE YOU A SMOKER?
READ THIS.

CORROCCO is the extract of a plant imported from South and Central America. This extract is mixed with aromatics to flavor and sweeten, and manufactured into tablets, delightful and refreshing. Corrocco is for the purpose of completely relieving and counteracting all the unpleasant and injurious effects of tobacco. A drop of nicotine will kill a cat. A drop of nicotine mixed with a drop of Corrocco is harmless. Few smokers realize how many of their nervous and digestive disorders are the result of tobacco; when they do realize it they "swear off." If Corrocco Tablets are used as a regular treatment the pleasure of smoking is doubled, because all its unpleasant effects—such as nervousness, sleeplessness, smokers' heart, etc.—are completely counteracted and the system thoroughly cleansed of the nicotine. When through smoking for the day a single tablet, costing less than one cent, dissolved on the tongue, will completely remove every vestige of tobacco and its effects, and you will feel like a new man in the morning.

The man who knows it all
And keeps it we adore;
But he who knows it all
And tells it is a bore.
—Lockport Journal.

A Washington man has a bright youngster who succeeded recently in getting even with his father in a very telling though unconscious manner. His father was reproving the little fellow's table manners. "Don't do that," said he, "or we'll have to call you a little pig." The warning seemed to be lost, for the fault was repeated. "Do you know what a pig is?" was the inquiry, put in a solemn manner. "Yes, sir." "What is it?" "A pig is a hog's little boy." The lesson in etiquette was suspended.—Washington Star.

"What are you busy with now, Greathed?" "I've organized a society for the reformation of society." "The reformation of society? That's rather a stupendous undertaking, isn't it?" "We hope to be able to do something." "But it will take money." "Yes, but we expect to raise at least ten thousand dollars a year from philanthropic people." "Ten thousand dollars won't go far in such an undertaking." "It will be enough. There are only three of us in it. That gives a salary of three thousand dollars a year apiece, and leaves one-thousand dollars for office expenses and reformation."—New York Press.
